Unless they are still in school, children who are 21 or older are not eligible to use any facility under your membership. If your married child lives outside of Jones, Jasper or Smith Co., and is visiting as your out-of-town, overnight houseguests, they may use the pool and tennis courts free of charge but are required to pay a green fee to play golf. A member's ex-spouse may (at the member's discretion) bring a member's young child to the pool or tennis courts as a babysitter. It's not necessary for a babysitter to be a member. Please list the names of possible babysitters below.
